By Carl E. Venstrom
Editor & Publisher

Edward E. Berry of 2661 Alicante Drive, Mission Viejo, was appointed to the Board of Trustees of the San Joaquin School District last Thursday at 3 p. m. at a special board meeting held in the Administration Offices located at 147-36 S. W. Sand Canyon Ave., East Irvine.

Berry is filling the vacancy created by the recent resignation of William M. Jeffrey, Jr. who is moving from Orange County.

W. G. Staples, president of the board, explained that the board had interviewed six candidates for the position on June 10th and that all of the candidates were well qualified and that the decision was going to be a hard one to make.

After a brief discussion the board agreed, unanimously, to the appointment of Berry of Mission Viejo.

Other candidates for the board vacancy included

Charles H. Boulanger, Marvin D. Mayer, Vincent A. LaVertu, Tom Davis and LeRoy L. Kellogg.

All of the present board members were present at the special meeting. The San Joaquin board members include W. G. Staples, president, of Box 63, East Irvine; Gratian Bidart of Box 126, El Toro; Edwin T. McFadden, Jr., of P. O. Box 28, El Toro and Capt. John N. Gossom, U. S. N., of the Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro.

District Administrators attending the meeting included Ralph A. Gates, superintendent, and Dr. William D. Stocks, assistant superintendent.

Board President Staples also announced that the next regular, scheduled meeting for Wednesday, July 3rd, will in addition to a regular meeting, include the annual Reorganizational Meeting for the school district. The July 3rd meeting is scheduled for 7 p. m. at the Sand Canyon school offices. The public is invited.

At last Thursday's special board meeting, approval was also given for the payment for landscaping work completed at the University Park School. Total cost of the landscaping was $11,016.54. A motion for approval of the payment was given by Capt. Gossom and seconded by Bidart.

This Monday, the recently hired business manager for the San Joaquin School District went to work. The appointment of Assistant Superintendent of Business was a new position recently created by the San Joaquin School District. The recent appointment went to Rex Nerison who has been working as Assistant Superintendent of Business in the Cypress Elementary School District.

St. Nicholas Church Plans Wine Festival

In a specially created wine garden setting, a Wine Festival will be given on June 28 from 8 to 10 p. m. in the Courtyard and Parish Hall of St. Nicholas Catholic Church.

This announcement was made by Mrs. James A. Craig, Chairman, who invites all parishioners and friends to attend. Donations are $1.25 per person and may be made by calling Mrs. Craig at 837-8465. Decorations will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hudson.

Sponsoring parish organization is the Holy Family Retreat Association whose membership is composed of young married couples residing in the eight tract developments adjoining Leisure World. Group Counselor is Father Otto E. Sporrer, Pastor. The organization is distinguished in that it has not one President — but two — known as the President-Couple. Presently holding this title are Mr. and Mrs. James A. Craig of 24751 Calle Tres Lomas.

A scintillating evening is predicted with surprise entertainment and some of the tasty wines from Napa Valley in Northern California. These of a basic variety are from Charles Krug select Wines. They will be augmented by dessert wines from Korbel Liquor distributors.

All donated funds will be used to finance Twilight treats for married couples of the parish, and to give authoritative clergy conduct discourses on preservation and maintenance of happy family life.

EDITORIAL:

Local Youth Programs Provide Busy Summer

The public schools finished their regular year last Friday and this week finds summer vacation off to a great start!

First of all, congratulations should go to the 342 eighth grade students who graduated last week from the San Joaquin School District. Congratulations should also go to the first graduating class from Mission Viejo High School.

And the youngsters certainly have a lot more things going for them this summer over last summer, and congratulations for this should go to the residents and merchants of the greater El Toro-Mission Viejo area.

The Mission Viejo High School is offering a summer school program as well as the San Joaquin School District. There is also an Adult Program being offered by the Tustin Union High School District.

And adequate recreational programs are being offered both in El Toro and Mission Viejo. A director has been appointed by the Mission Viejo Co. to conduct a K through 6 summer recreation program at the Mission Viejo O'Neill School.

The Aliso Valley Homeowners Assn. has made arrangements with the San Joaquin School District to use facilities for a summer recreation program at the Olivewood and Gates School in El Toro. Budget by the homeowners, for the program is set at $3,500. The homeowners are hiring a director to run the summer recreation program.

The South Coast YMCA has also made arrangements with the Board of Trustees of the San Joaquin School District to use certain rooms of the Olivewood School in El Toro for purpose of teen-age dances on Friday and Saturday nights, running through June, July and August.

The South Coast YMCA is also offering a varied camping program for the youth of our area. These programs include day camps, caravans to Yosemite and Big Sur, sports camp and mountain camp. For more information on these programs call Roger Carter, YMCA Director, at Laguna, telephone 1-494-9431. His offices are located at 491 Forest Avenue, Laguna Beach.

The Rancho Viejo Women's Club has recently established a Youth Employment Service of Mission Viejo which is sponsoring work for students, ages 14 through 18. For more information on this program see page three of this issue of the RANCHO REPORTER.

The Youth Employment Service of Mission Viejo serves all students of Mission Viejo High School and interested employers should call 830-2830 for further information. Mrs. Ruth Dicks and Mrs. Sandra Schmidt, of Mission Viejo, are heading up the program.

Red Cross Offers Help For Many

When a wife and family live in Orange County and the husband is serving in Viet Nam, problems and anxieties can become magnified many-fold.

This is the possibility facing countless Orange County families who have men in military service thousands of miles from home, declared Frances King, director of the Orange County Red Cross Chapter's Service to Military Families.

On 24-hour duty to handle emergency leaves, the Orange County Red Cross has witnessed a 67 per cent increase in its military caseload since the escalation of the Viet Nam conflict in 1965. Last year saw a 31 per cent increase in Red Cross assistance to these families, necessitating three full time case workers and an even greater number of volunteers to handle this service.

The problem, Mrs. King said, might be a missed allotment check, or some other financial crisis for which Red Cross financial aid would provide a solution.

"By far, though," she noted, "our biggest business is with emergency leaves. We process close to 150 emergency leaves a month, in addition to handling approximately 1,000 emergency communications."

Just recently, Mrs. King commented, a doctor phoned Red Cross to say that the father of a serviceman on a ship somewhere in the Pacific had had a serious heart attack and was in critical condition. He felt the presence of the son would help.

A message was sent over the Red Cross teletype machine to National Headquarters in Washington where it was relayed through Military World-Wide Communications Systems to the commanding officer of the ship. In this case, Mrs. King pointed out, the commander could not reach port for a week but he requested daily progress reports on the sailor's father. Within the week the boy was re-united with the family back here. The father recovered. The case was closed with a happy ending.

LETTERS

Dear Mr. Venstrom:

It is my pleasure on behalf of the clergy and congregations of the churches participating in our recent Ecumenical Series to extend to you and your staff our sincere appreciation for the excellent coverage of those meetings in your news columns.

The space you devote to church news indicates a real concern for the moral and spiritual life of our community. For this we are grateful.

Cordially yours,
Frederick C. Hammond
for the Clergy participating in the 1968 Post Easter Ecumenical Program.

Dear Mr. Venstrom,

On behalf of the Gates Parent Teachers Organization I wish to thank you for all the assistance you have given us throughout the 1967-68 school year.

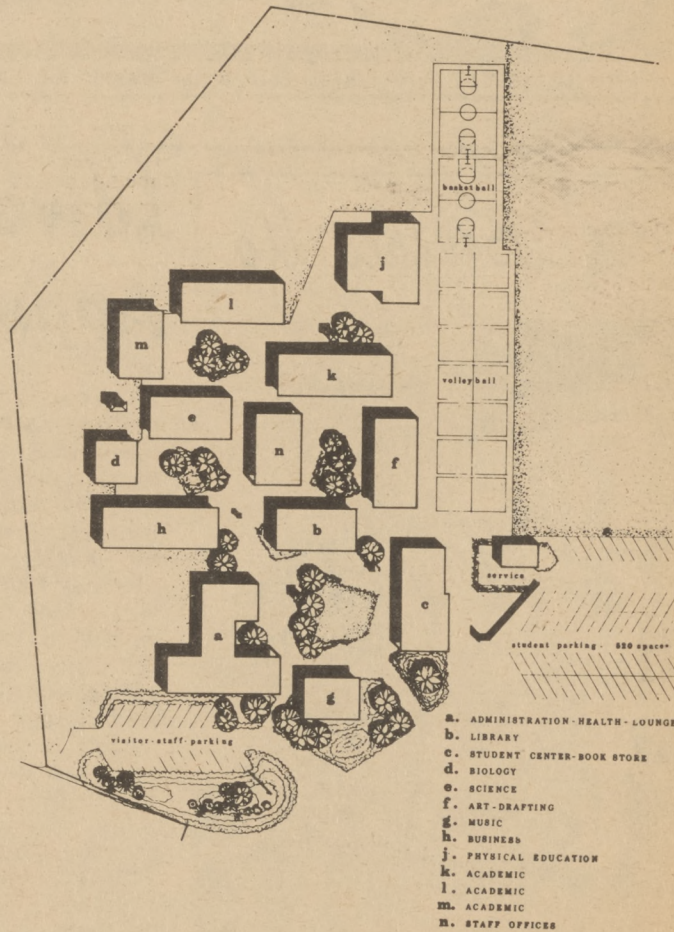

On June 4th, the P. T. O. held its' final meeting of the year. Mrs. Elwell, Principal of Gates School, was presented with a check for $1,024.00. This will be used to purchase record players and listening posts for the school, including the new portable units. Early in 1967, our P. T. O. set this project as our goal for the year. Thanks to the generosity of many parents, we were able to meet our commitment.

Because of the Rancho Reporter, we notified parents of coming events more effectively than ever before, thus making our meetings and fund raising events more successful.

Best wishes to you and your staff.
Yours very truly,
Connie Kelly, President

Youth Jobs Offered

By Dan Wooldridge
News Editor

"Youth wants to work" is the by-word of the Youth Employment Service of Mission Viejo sponsored by the Rancho Viejo Women's Club.

Students ages 14-18 are available for temporary and part-time work according to the project co-chairman; Mrs. Ruth Dicks and Mrs. Sandra Schmidt.

"Some students have already been placed, but we definitely need quite a number of jobs," stated Mrs. Dicks. Local youths are qualified and interested in yard work, car washing, trainees, mechanic helpers, warehouse work, bus boys, receptionists, file clerks, sales clerks, typists, waitresses, wrappers, and service station attendants.

Mrs. Dicks sees the youth employment project as full filling two purposes: first, provide experience in gaining and continuing work; and second, earning money and keeping students busy during the long summer months.

The Rancho Reporter will begin publishing an Honor Roll of Employers each week listing the various firms that have employed local youths.

The Youth Employment Service of Mission Viejo serves all students of Mission Viejo High School and interested employers should call 830-2830 for further information.

Repub. Women Meet June 25

The June 25th meeting of the Mission Viejo Republican Women Federated will be held at 10:00 a.m. at the home of President Sandra Wand, 25191 DeSalle Street, Laguna Hills.

Mrs. Robert Price, program chairmen, has announced that a tape entitled: "Brain Washing" (By, Major William E. Mayer) will be heard. It is concerned with methods of brain washing used by the enemy on POW's during the Korean conflict.

After the meeting an informal luncheon will be served. All members and guests are urged to attend.

"You only live once!"

One answer to that one is, "But that's exactly the point."

Nobody could deny that young people have very special problems. Pressures. Drives. Impulses. Loneliness. Uncertainty. It's not hard to make a mistake. Even a disastrous one.

Yet very little maturity brings the realization that you're the You you have to live with all your life—mistakes and all.

If you're young, now's the best time to think about the moral values you'll want to live by five years from now. And ten. And twenty. The values, perhaps, you'd like your own children to share.

Look to your Faith now to help you find the way of life you really want for yourself. Then live your Faith. You may find there is much more to you than you ever dreamed.

Invitation To Orange Co. Fair

Orange County residents will have literally hundreds of ways to demonstrate their homemaking skills at the 1968 Orange County Fair and Exposition, according to home economics supervisor Dee Cox. Women's organizations, clubs, and individuals (both men and women) are invited to enter and exhibit their wares at this year's Fair and Exposition, slated for July 16-21.

Entry categories in the Home Economics Division include a broad range of homemaking skills and arts, said Mrs. Cox. "Many people do not realize," she added, "that home economics means a lot more than trading recipes, cooking and canning. Making hand-fashioned dolls and wall tapestries, creating artful table settings, and rug weaving or braiding are among some of the many areas covered by the home economics department."

Cash prizes, ribbons and trophies will be awarded winning exhibitors, and many manufacturers and merchants throughout Orange County are furnishing special product prizes as well.

Full details on entering the home economics and 1,077 other exhibit classifications are in the new 1968

Premium Book, available now. A free copy of the Premium Book may be obtained by writing, visiting or calling the Fairgrounds in Costa Mesa. Mrs. Cox stressed, however, that the registration deadline for home economics entries is June 21. Actual submission of entry items is scheduled for July.

LB Art Assn. Holds Anniversary Show

The Laguna Beach Art Association will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary with the showing of their Permanent Memorial Collection in the Main Gallery and the Faculty Show from the School of Art and Design in the Entresol of the Art Gallery at 307 Cliff Drive, Laguna Beach, through June 30th. Also included in the exhibit will be a selection of award winners from the Festival of Arts Collection.

In 1918, under the leadership of Edgar Payne, the Gallery was founded and the non-profit association organized. The present Gallery was built in 1929 under the guidance of Anna A. Hills, then the President of the Association, on bluff property secured through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Heisler. During the depression of 1932, John Hinchman suggested the first informal Festival of Arts.

The Festival, having started with the Art Association, is now a separate organization. Another project of the Laguna Beach Art Association in 1958 was the establishment of the School of Art and Design, also now a separate organization.

Tina Swartz Farms Oranges Aboard Her 'Blue Bird Special'

By Dan C. Wooldridge
News Editor

"Good things come in small packages" someone once said, and 4' 10" citrus grower Tina Swartz certainly proves it.

Tina is seen around El Toro aboard her Ford tractor affectionately named the Blue Bird Special.

Mrs. Swartz has lived alone on 5.55 acres of orange groves at Front and Lemon Streets since the passing of her husband Harvey in 1956.

Tina hoes, waters, and maintains her own groves without outside assistance. Refers to herself as probably "the only woman in Orange County doing this kind of work."

Tina was born in Fano, Italy and moved to the United States at the age of seven. During the time Tina's family lived in Cohoes, New York, the young girl went into show business. Tina sang professionally on the radio and later on the stage for 12 years in New York and California.

In 1936, Tina and her family moved to Los Angeles where she recorded several songs including, "Our Love" and "Moon of Monuna." Musical talent ran deep in the family as her older brother sang with Paul Whiteman's Band.

Tina met and fell in love with El Toro native Harvey Swartz who farmed on the old Rancho Santa Margarita, which is present day Mission Viejo. In 1939 the young couple was married and Tina always rode beside her husband on the tractor because he was an invalid.

The Swartz's bought land in El Toro after World War II and Tina worked 12-14 hours a day laying irrigation lines, moving pumps, hoeing, weeding, and even putting in the foundation for their home.

Today Tina's sole means of transportation is her beloved Ford tractor, but with increasing traffic she faces problems. Recently stopped by a policeman, Tina was told it was illegal for her to use the tractor as a car, but the officer weakened when told her story.

Tina Swartz believes that "if people can't stand on their own feet after 50, they never can." The brown eyed lady lives alone except for her toy dachshund named, "Girl from Las Vegas." Proudly, Tina explained that her dachshund killed 5 gophers last week between rides on the tractor.

Tina, the Girl from Las Vegas, and the Blue Bird Special are seen frequently together around El Toro "plugging along best as I can."

"I like it here," said Tina, "it has some very nice people, but one of these days I'll have to give it up." Certainly when Tina Swartz finally does retire, our area will lose one of the most interesting and colorful women ever to live in Orange County.

Silverado Miners Discover Canyon Has No Silver Lining

By Stanley E. Davidson

Ever wonder how Silverado Canyon got its name? Until the 1870's it was known as the "Canada de la Madeva" (canyon of the timbers).

In 1877 the stillness of the countryside was interrupted by the shouts of elation of Hank Smith and William Curry of Santa Ana. These prospectors had come across some blue and white quartz which produced silver testing at $60 a ton. They named their mine the "Southern Belle" and, when the discovery was leaked to Los Angeles newspapers, the silver rush of Orange County was on.

They came on horseback and by wagon, these hearty prospectors of California, and they were not to be deterred by mountain streams or fallen trees. Several more mines blossomed into existence, however only the "Blue Light" could really be classified as a silver mine of any real value.

When, early in 1778, coal was discovered by Ramon Mesquida, the flames of enthusiasm were fanned considerably. Shacks and tents sprung up almost overnight, followed by a blacksmith shop and several stores. Seven saloons quenched the thirst of the miners by serving lots of red eye, and a little sarsaparilla.

Two stages ran daily to Los Angeles, and three made the 4 hour, 18 mile, trip to Santa Ana. The name was changed to Silverado, and Samuel Shrewsbury, one of the first residents of the area, was elected justice of the peace.

It was a dream, a myth really, which held until well into 1883, but it was a dream just the same.

Gradually, the miners lost faith and became discouraged. By 1887 the glory of Silverado was little more than a memory.

Saddleback Club Sponsors Athletics

Organization of the Saddleback College Bench Club, a citizens' organization supporting the athletic program at the new community college, is underway, announced Athletic Director George C. Hartman.

Dick Hallmark of San Clemente and Rod Graves of Tustin have been named temporary chairmen of the Bench Club until a board of directors is selected in September.

A charter membership drive has started and will continue through September 14, "but we are seeking help, through membership, immediately," stressed the two co-chairmen.

Reason for the early enthusiasm is the sponsorship of a golf tournament by the Bench Club July 26.

Persons joining the club before September 14 will receive a charter membership certificate, the co-chairmen announced. Membership costs $15.

Members of the club will be granted privileges, such as special reserved seats at sporting events, and will actively participate in assisting in educational athletic program.

The golf tournament, to be staged at the Mission Viejo Golf Club, will provide revenue to assist the club in its active participation in the college's sports program this fall.

The Bench Club is urging interested people to assist in the tournament, as well as participate. Cost to enter the tournament will be $15. This is to include green fees, an electric golf cart, and a steak dinner.

Golf tournament participants do not have to be members of the Bench Club, but the group is sponsoring the tournament along with its membership drive.

Persons interested in the club or tournament can contact Coach Hartman at the college office, 25001 La Paz Road, Mission Viejo, or call him at 837-9700. In Mission Viejo, Laguna Hills, El Toro area contact Dom DeCasas, 837-1370.

MV Amateur Golf Tourney Scheduled

The first annual Mission Viejo Amateur Open golf tournament will be held August 24 and 25 at the Mission Viejo Golf Club, near San Juan Capistrano. The tourney, open to all Southern California amateurs, will contain four flights: 0 to 6, 7 to 12, 13 to 18 and above handicaps.

More than $1000 in prizes will be awarded. Entry fee of $25 will cover both days green fees and carts and an awards dinner on Sunday night in the Mission Viejo Inn at the club.

Entry information may be obtained by writing to Mission Viejo Golf Club 26742 Oso Parkway, Mission Viejo, Calif. or by calling (714) 837-5604.

Openings Still Left For 'Y' Camp

South Orange County YMCA Director Roger Carter reported this week there are still a few openings for "Y" Mountain Camp, June 23 to June 29.

Carter said, "Back in 1857, the YMCA managed the first boys Mountain Camp. Our camp coming up will be filled with much of the same excitement and activities including horseback riding in camp, a big handicraft lodge, riflery range, campfire programs at night, hiking, swimming in the camp pool, and cook-outs.

"The camp is filled with high pines and is just a few miles from Big Bear Lake."

Boys can still sign up by calling the YMCA at 494-9431 any weekday between 9:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M. or sending their name and address to the South Orange County YMCA, 491 Forest, Laguna Beach.

What about service?

Eldorado Home Owner Wins 500 Pound Calf

A recently retired Altadena secretary, who wanted to be near her only son's family and to get away from "smog and other metropolitan problems," became the 500th purchaser of an Eldorado Home in Mission Viejo and this week was presented with a 500-lb. calf from Rancho Mission Viejo.

A very surprised Mrs. Bernice Barber of 614 E. Punaham, Altadena, was assured by John T. Martin, vice president of marketing and sales for Mission Viejo Company, that she had the option of receiving either the 500 lbs. of veal on the hoof or half of a 1,000 - lb steer, if she prefers beef.

In presenting Mrs. Barber with the unusual gift, Martin said:

"We're delighted that the 500th buyer turned out to be a retired person, for Eldorado Homes became the fastest selling development in Orange County because it appeals to everyone from young couples just getting married to retirees. Since the first buyers were a young couple, it's most appropriate that you were the 500th."

Twosome Without A Name — Mickey Dougherty and Kurt Steinbeck are currently appearing at Ruben's Restaurant in Tustin have been playing together for such a short time they have not found a name for their "group." Can you help them out?

Twosome Strumming At Local Restaurant

By Jan Venstrom

Mickey Dougherty and Kurt Steinbeck are currently giving forth with sweet sounds for the entertainment of guests at Ruben's Restaurant in Tustin. They are playing in the cocktail lounge, but their voices and music can be heard throughout the separate dining rooms.

The boys were asked what they called themselves as a singing twosome and Mickey replied in a melodic tone, "Our group is called Mickey and Kurt."

Since they have only been playing together for four weeks they really haven't had the time to sit down and find a name that they would have to keep, once chosen.

Mickey said if anyone, after seeing and hearing them play, could come up with a catchy twosome name they would be grateful indeed.

Mickey and Kurt were asked what their ambitions were and being musically inclined the answer was quite amazing.

Mickey is going to college and majoring in Business and Kurt will be starting Cal State Fullerton and has aspirations of becoming a lawyer. They both agreed however that they want to pursue their musical careers.

The two boys are working at Winn's Music Store in Tustin's Larwin Square, during the day. Mickey is manager of Winn's and Kurt teaches the guitar there.

They would like to see you some Monday or Tuesday evening at Ruben's, Tustin, so you can join in the fun and fine music.

Laguna Beach Art School Offers Summer Program

Two very different approaches to art are being presented at the Laguna Beach School of Arts and Design as the Summer Program opens, according to Alexandra Churchill Board Chairman.

Bennett Bradbury, famed representational seascape painter, will teach by demonstration and discussion during a two-week workshop starting June 17th.

Mr. Bradbury shares with his classes his great fund of knowledge and technique gathered through years of painting the sea in all its moods along the Pacific Coastline.

So popular are his methods that the two large painting studios of the School have been made available for this June workshop, Mrs. Churchill said.

From July 8th to 19th, Jim Gilbert of Santa Fe, New Mexico will offer a dynamic workshop in two and three dimensional design.

Mr. Gilbert plans a concentrated learning process including exposures to principles of color and form in investigation and exploration for development of perpetual and conceptual abilities.

Students may choose their own media and will also learn how to prepare a plastic base paint from raw materials. Group tasks and happenings, environmental work and research into improvable media will involve the class in new directions.

Other fine workshops and courses are scheduled for this summer at the School, including instruction by Robert Frame, David Schnabel, Roger Kuntz, Ruth Osgood, Roger Armstrong, Jon Stokesbary, Donna Sharkey, Dion Wright and Sue Wilson.

Registration is now open at the School, 630 Laguna Canyon Road, next to the Festival of Arts grounds. For further information and free brochure, call 494-1520.

Two El Toro Residents Graduate From Chapman

Two students from El Toro were among the graduates receiving degrees during the Chapman College Commencement June 9 in Orange, California.

Richard A. Huckle, 2424 McCoy Road, received the Bachelor of Arts degree, having majored in history.

Robert Peters Sturges, 24022 Alderglen Drive, received the Master of Arts degree.

The June graduating class at Chapman included 183 candidates for bachelor's degrees and 40 for master's degrees. Dr. John L. Davis, president of the private liberal arts college, conferred the degrees.

OC Fair Offers 'Service Forum'

A unique new "Community Service Forum" will be available to qualified non-profit organizations at the 1968 Orange County Fair and Exposition in July.

The purpose of this new feature is to provide bonafide non-profit service groups an opportunity to communicate their stories to Fairgoers as effectively and inexpensively as possible.

Information on the new Community Service Mall may be obtained by calling general manager Alfred G. Lutjeans at the Fairgrounds in Costa Mesa.
